Exercise 2

Sight translation: English to test language

(1) A sex offender who is subject to an order under the Sex Offender Registration Act shall report to a registration centre referred to in section 7.1 within 15 days after

- (a) the order is made, if they are convicted of the offence in connection with which the order is made but are not given a custodial sentence;
- (b) they receive an absolute or conditional discharge under Part XX.1 of the Criminal Code, if they are found not criminally responsible on account of mental disorder for the offence in connection with which the order is made;
- (c) they are released from custody pending the determination of an appeal relating to the offence in connection with which the order is made; or
- (d) they are released from custody after serving the custodial portion of a sentence for the offence in connection with which the order is made.

(2) A person who is subject to an obligation under section 490.019 of the Criminal Code or section 227.06 of the National Defence Act shall report to a registration centre referred to in section 7.1 of this Act.

- (a) if they are not in custody on the day on which they become subject to the obligation, within 15 days after that day; or
- (b) in any other case, within 15 days after.

(3) If a sex offender is required to report to a registration centre designated under this Act, they shall report in person.

(4) A sex offender shall not leave Canada before they report under this section of the Act.
